The Parks, Open Space and Environmental Features Plan is intended to address three primary challenges: (1) maintaining and enhancing existing park facilities, (2) improving connections to and expanding the parks system within the City and its growth areas, and (3) preserving and improving access to the areas important natural areas.